WHO CAN USE FRIEND OF THE EARTH® LOGO?

Companies and products authorized to use Friend of the Sea® logo

Friend of the Earth® registered trademark – Friend of the Earth® logo – can only be printed and displayed on products with a valid Friend of the Earth® certificate or logo use authorization.

Only companies which have a valid signed Friend of the Earth® Audit and Licensing Agreement and a valid Friend of the Earth® certificate or logo use authorization can apply/print Friend of the Earth® registered trademark on their own branded Friend of the Earth® certified products. These companies can also highlight their products' Friend of the Sea certification on the specific Friend of the Sea® certified products' related marketing material and communications.

The Scheme Owner can revoke, by means of an official communication, authorization to use the Friend of the Sea trademark, for those companies which are not compliant with yearly royalties payment, and more generally for those companies not compliant with the signed Audit and Licensing Agreement.

Companies whose authorization to use the Friend of the Earth® logo has been revoked, must remove the logo from the products according to the timing specified in the Audit and Licensing Agreement.

Companies with own branded products certified Friend of the Earth®, cannot authorize their customers/clients, nor any other company, to use the Friend of the Sea® logo. Any company interested in using the Friend of the Sea logo, must contact the World Sustainability Organization for information on application procedure.
